Hope Church to Hold First Service in New Building

First services in the new church edifice of the Hope Evangelical United Brethren Church at 3847 W. 174th St. will be held Sunday morning when Rev. Homer Miller speaks on "The Light That Never Fails" at the 10:45 a.m. services.

The service will be the final one for Rev. Miller, who started the church as a mission in 1953 and has built it to a present membership of nearly 150. Rev. Miller will leave next week to attend the annual conference of the Evangelical United Brethren churches at Lodi and has been told that he will be reassigned.

Sunday's services in the new edifice will be a communion service, Rev. Miller said. Dedication will be held at the church later this year.

Before accepting the assignment at the north Torrance church, Rev. Miller was resident pastor of the Central church in Torrance, a post he held beginning in 1951.

Adventists Set For Lynwood Affair Saturday

Members of Torrance Seventh-day Adventist church, at 1810 Acacia Ave., will hold worship services this Saturday at the 54th annual Camp Meeting of Adventists, 4100 Imperial Hwy., Lynwood, along with more than 15,000 other church members from a.

On Saturday morning at 11 a.m., local church members will hear R. R. Bietz, Glendale, president of the Southern California Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, speak on the subject, "Prepare to Meet Thy God."

At Sabbath School services at 9:30 a.m., Torrance Adventists will join in a program which will feature the study program of the church. A pageant of the church's mission program in foreign lands also will be on the program.

Tonight members of the local church will participate in opening services of the Camp Meeting, M. L. Andresson, ministerial secretary of the Southern California Conference of Adventists, will speak on the subject, "Man's Hunger After Righteousness."

Universe, Atom, Man, Sermon Set For Sunday

"Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?" is the challenging subject of the Sunday Lesson-Sermon to be read in all Christian Science churches.

The vision of St. John, the Revelator, where he declares "And I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea" (Revelation 21:1), is the high point of the Lesson-Sermon.

The Golden Text from Psalms (95:3, 4) reads, "The Lord is the deep places of the earth; the strength of the mills is his also."

Methodists To Hold Meet In Redlands

The 106th session of the Southern California-Arizona annual conference of the Methodist Church will convene at the University of Redlands June 18, at 2 p.m., with Bishop Gerald Kennedy, of the Los Angeles area, presiding. The conference will begin with a communion service and end on Sunday, June 24, with the reading of the appointments.

Bishop Kennedy will be speaking each morning on the theme, "All Sorrows and Conditions of Men." Evening speakers are Bishop Shot K. Mondol, of Southern India, and Bishop Newell S. Booth of the Belgian Congo and Southern Rhodesia.

An important item of business is the report of a conference committee set up to accomplish the separation of the School of Religion from the University of Southern California and to establish it as a program of the church. A pageant of the church's mission program in foreign lands also will be on the program.

The school continue at the University Church, adjacent to the campus, with permanent location to be decided later.

A benevolent budget of $1,045,002 is to be presented to the conference to take care of the boards and institutions related to the conference. If adopted, it will aid the Conference Board of Missions and Church Extension in their goal of establishing a new Methodist church each month in the bounds of Southern California-Arizona.

In attendance will be the minister of the First Methodist Church, the Rev. John L. Taylor and the Rev. Donald J. Shelby, and the lay member of the conference, Stanley G. Roberts; the minister of the Welteria Methodist Church, the Rev. Gene Gehres, and their lay member, Roy Cornell; the minister of the new Hollywood Rivera Church, the Rev. Tom Dillard.
